

Thank you for your considering the Colonel Williams for your wedding venue. We are very pleased to offer truly full-service event management and strive to provide the most stress-free experience possible.

Weddings here can range from incredibly informal to very formal - and everything in between. Our team has experience planning and coordinating all kinds of events, and a deep pool of vendors and resources that we can use to make your day stress-free, beautiful, and on-budget. I'm confident that we can work with you to create your dream Vermont barn wedding.

The barn can very comfortably hold +/- 160 people, but based on your food service, table setup, etc. it can accommodate up to 200 guests. Even though it is large, more intimate weddings are also beautiful in the venue.

Please don't hesitate to call me if you need any additional information or have any questions. I hope that we can work together!

Kind regards,
Victoria
