IMPRESSIONISM READINGS

What is an 'IMPRESSION READING?'

In David's words:

"Not everyone is comfortable with the notion of going to a fortune teller. I get it. Personally, I don't like that idea either. But most people will welcome the idea of getting a one-on-one reading from me, because my readings have nothing to do with tarot cards or rune stones or palm reading. Nothing spooky. Nothing supernatural.

"I simply share impressions I get from each person: places they have been, the kind of challenges they are dealing with...or important things they have on their minds. Sometimes I get an abstract picture, or fragments of a name...an image of a place.

"I honestly never know what I will come...and that's what makes the whole experience so wonderful."

"I wanted to write to you directly and tell you how much the reading you did at the convention meant to me. I have no idea how you sensed those things! I was thinking about what you said for a long time after I got home and you are spot on. Thank you for the care you took with me. You're the best !"

MIDNIGHT MENTALISM SHOW

David says:

"Mentalism on stage is powerful. It's unique!

"Mind Reading is something many people have seen on television and they are curious about it. But nothing compares with the sensation of seeing it live.

"People respond wonderfully because mentalism is more than a show. It invites its audience to be a part of an extraordinary experience.

"The Midnight Mentalism Show is loaded with Perfect Moments. The audience sees minds being read 'close-up and personal' during the early part of the evening.

"Then they will enjoy a dynamic stage show. Lots of laughter...wonder and a pile of surprises.

"After the show, they end their night with a one-on-one reading.

"This is an event people will remember forever."

"We were gobsmacked! Our eyes were huge -- wide open -- as dozens of minds were read in front of hundreds of people. David was bang on every time! He was truly incredible. Everyone is still talking about it. We will be working with him again."
