

PEABODY ESSEX MUSEUM

MAKE your WEDDING A WORK OF art

Atrium

First impressions are important, and your guests will be immediately awed by our breathtaking Atrium designed by renowned architect Moshe Safdie. Located in the heart of the museum, this light-filled space boasts an arched glass roof that soars dramatically overhead and provides generous space for dinner and dancing. Enjoy a lively wedding reception unlike no other with this stunning backdrop.

ROOM CAPACITY

300 for seated dinners | 270 with dancing | 400 for standing receptions

Forbes & Copeland Galleries

Located on the first level, these two galleries offer an intimate setting for your guests. Enjoy a seated or standing dinner reception in the larger Bartlett Gallery, featuring a commissioned installation by artist Vanessa Platadis. Guests can mingle over cocktails and hors d'oeuvres in the Copeland Gallery and explore the adjacent outdoor patio and garden.

ROOM CAPACITY

70 for seated dinners | 120 for standing receptions

East India Marine Hall

Built in 1824 by the founders of the museum, East India Marine Hall is a traditional New England-style ballroom and formally designated as a National Historic Landmark. This elegant space features arched floor-to-ceiling Palladian windows, two grand chandeliers, polished hardwood floors and maritime art.

ROOM CAPACITY

150 for seated dinners | 130 with dancing
275 for standing receptions | 250 for wedding ceremonies

Garden Atrium

Designed with a stunning sky-high glass ceiling, this brand-new light-filled atrium adds a dynamic element to your wedding experience. Combined with the outdoor garden, this venue space is perfect for cocktails, standing receptions and small dinners.

ROOM CAPACITY

70 for seated dinners | 200 for standing receptions
70 for wedding ceremonies
