

The Glassberg Pavilions- The Sunny and Myron Glassberg Pavilions provide the perfect space for an outdoor gathering amidst the Whitmire Wildflower Garden prairie. Located just south of the Bascom House, these covered pavilions offer shelter from light rain and a shady space to gather. Available picnic tables can comfortably seat around 50 individuals. These two pavilions are both equipped with electricity and offer breathtaking views of the Shaw Nature Reserve landscape. Parking is available in the Bascom House Parking Lot with restrooms available nearby

Maximum Capacity: 50 seated at picnic tables, 100 max capacity

Pricing: $250 per pavilion

The Carriage House- Located behind the historic Bascom House, the Carriage House offers a small indoor space perfectly nestled next to the Whitmire Wildflower Garden. The back porch offers a peaceful space to relax in the provided Adirondack chairs overlooking the 3-acre native garden. This space can comfortably seat 25 individuals with a pulldown screen for presentations.

Maximum Capacity: 25 individuals seated, 35 max capacity

Pricing: $300

The Maritz Trail House Classroom- Built in 1942 with native rock, the Maritz Trail House is centrally located among the Nature Reserve's 17-mile trail system providing picnic tables, restrooms, drinking water, and nearby parking. Trails leaving from this location meander through tallgrass prairie, woodland, glades, bottomland forest and is our easiest access to the Meramec River. This classroom room located inside the Trail House is equipped with a pulldown screen for presentations, sink and microwave. Can comfortably seat 15 individuals for a presentation or a small gathering of 25.

Maximum Capacity: 15 individuals seated, 25 max capacity

Pricing: $150

The Dana Brown Overnight Center - Completed in 2003, the Dana Brown Overnight Center is a cluster of historic log or post-beam structures dating back to the 1800's. Salvaged from various sites within 100 miles of the Nature Reserve, these buildings were carefully dismantled and reconstructed at Shaw Nature Reserve mainly for education programs and overnight retreats.

The Assembly Building- Originally a barn built in the 1800's, the Assembly Building offers a large-rustic meeting space. Perfect for a family gathering or a corporate meeting. Amenities include two restrooms, a pull down screen for presentations, kitchen (stove/oven, refrigerator, microwave, dishwasher, plates, bowls, cups, mugs, utensils), industrial coffee maker, indoor fireplace, and an outdoor fire pit.

Maximum Capacity: 60 comfortably seated, 75 max capacity

Pricing: $500

The Adlyne Freund Center- The Adlyne Freund Center is an original structure upon purchase of the property. Once a hunting lodge, this building has been updated to include two restrooms, a pull down screen for presentations, kitchen (stove/oven, refrigerator, microwave, dishwasher, plates, bowls, cups, mugs, utensils), industrial coffee maker, indoor fireplace, and an outdoor fire pit.

Maximum Capacity: 30 comfortably seated, 40 max capacity

Pricing: $400

Overnight Retreats- Looking to host an overnight retreat at the Dana Brown Overnight Center? Visit our Overnight Retreats page below:

>>>Overnight Retreats and Rentals (SEND LINK TO "OVERNIGHT RETREATS")

Contact the Events Coordinator for more information on ZMD and not-for-profit rates.

If you are interested in reserving a space at Shaw Nature Reserve or if you have any questions, please contact:

Bailie Kleekamp, Events and Outreach Coordinator

(314) 577-9529 or bkleekamp@mobot.org