

Welcome to Elora

Your Dream Destination

Strikingly situated above the thundering falls of the Grand River and Gorge, the Elora Mill Hotel & Spa celebrates over 175 years enriched in history and charm.

The scenic town of Elora is an alluring destination and a true year-round magical setting for your wedding celebration.

Your Wedding

Dare to Dream

At Elora Mill, your celebration begins long before the ceremony takes place. From the moment you and your guests enter the charming town of Elora, to the final farewells, your dream wedding will become your forever after.

Your Ceremony

Two words – “I do” – says it all... the exchange of vows is the true moment everyone has been waiting for. With the Elora Mill as your backdrop, this memory will be captured in style and elegance. Let us take care of the details, from music and rehearsal planning, to selecting your officiant and orchestrating the day. We are honoured to be a part of this momentous occasion.

Your Dream Team

Love is in the details. Our events team will ensure all moments are thoughtfully and carefully planned, from your first meeting, to your wedding day. On the day of your wedding, your personal Concierge will be by your side every step of the way. All the while, the Maître D' managing your event will ensure your guests are well cared for and all details are executed exactly as you imagined.

The Grand

Seating Capacity: 200

Surrounded by windows that overlook the Grand River and the charming town of Elora, The Grand's classic European design captures the celebratory spirit of the occasion. All features are thoughtfully designed - decorative moulding, touches of antique mirror, a stone wood-burning fireplace, grand ceilings and gracious chandeliers - leaving no detail left unturned.

The Irvine

Seating Capacity: 110

For the romantics at heart, who crave an intimate setting, The Irvine is perfect. Classic European details adorn the room - ornate mouldings, antique mirror touches, wood-burning fireplace and majestic chandeliers - while soft shades complement the room's natural surrounding. The adjoining private courtyard is the pièce de résistance that transports your guests to that picture-perfect old-world setting.

Food & Drink

Dream Delicious

The food and drink at Elora Mill is unique for its sense of place - shaped by its location, the people that surround it, and a celebration in time. Enter into a welcoming, refined reception with old world charm and sophisticated style, where taste buds are delighted and smiles are widespread. Our wedding packages are locally inspired and customized to your preferences. Add celebratory touches like a pop of Champagne, unique wine selections from our sommelier or scrumptious late night treats to elevate your culinary adventure - the possibilities are endless and guaranteed to be delicious.

Your Stay
Dream the Night Away

With a variety of well designed guest suites to choose from, you and your guests will experience a superior level of comfort, luxury and warmth. An overnight stay means an extended celebration adding even more memorable moments.

At Your Service

The exceptional level of service you experience during the planning of your wedding continues throughout your entire stay. Our guest service team is committed to thoughtful and genuine hospitality, anticipating your every need and mindful of every detail. We take great pride in delivering an experience that will be remembered long after departure day. Your stay with us will exceed expectations and is guaranteed to be special in every way.

Mill Rooms

The original Mill offers 20 guest suites, each unique to the historic significance of the space, most with stunning views over the Grand River. Solarium suites feature floor to ceiling windows, Loft rooms offer a two bedroom option and Terrace rooms provide indoor/outdoor enjoyment with private deck and outdoor fire pit. Other features include wood burning fireplaces, luxurious linens, lavish duvets and carefully curated artwork and furnishings from local artisans.

Coach House

Steps from the main Mill, the Coach House offers nine private guest suites, all with spacious balconies overlooking the Grand River. Inside, cozy wood burning fireplaces, well appointed furnishings and plush finishes will make you never want to leave. The Coach House lends itself nicely to families and groups who like to be in close proximity of each other, yet have separate spaces to call their own.

The James Ross House

This quaint, historic building will be a private, full guest suite. The charm and elegance of the James Ross House is the perfect newlywed retreat, a luxurious and serene place to start your new journey together. A truly unique guest experience, with living area on the main floor and a loft-style bedroom. This is somewhere entirely special, filled with natural surroundings, historic ambience and modern amenities.

The Spa

Dream Your Escape

The Elora Mill Spa is only steps from your room, but miles away from every day life. Enjoy a dip in the outdoor pool on an elevated deck overlooking the gorge, or melt away stress in the wood burning sauna. Mind, body and spirit are all well looked after with a variety of treatments and therapies. Plan a Spa Day for your wedding party or prepare for your walk down the aisle in the caring hands of our Spa therapists, expertly trained and at your service.

A Destination

Dream Your Adventure

Being wed at Elora Mill is a true destination experience. All the charm and adventure that the town embodies means no shortage of things to do for you and your guests. Seeking a thrill? There's zip-lining over the gorge. If you're feeling crafty, try your hand at glass-blowing. For the outdoor sportsman, Elora offers some of the best fly fishing in Ontario. From the many festivals held in the area, to the local shops and artisans that are a stone's throw away, there is something to do year-round for everyone. Explore one of Ontario's small town communities and see the wonders that await.
