WELCOME TO VOGUE T H E A T R E

Thank you for considering The Vogue Theatre for your event!

Independently owned The Vogue is a proud supporter of local and international live music and entertainment. As one of the last remaining theatres from the famed "Theatre Row", The Vogue is a graceful reminder of Vancouver's rich entertainment history. Established in 1941, the Vogue annually hosts upwards of 200 events and continues to be one of Canada's premier venues for live music, cinema, corporate and community events.

Because of The Vogue Theatre's scale, design and longevity it was recognized as a National Historic Site of Canada with the aim to make entertainment more accessible to a broader audience, of all ages, for many years to come.

With a commitment to good old fashion hospitality, your experience at the Vogue will be first class. From the moment you step into the historic foyer to the closing curtain, our vision is unpretentious, personable, five-star service. The Vogue Theatre is available for exclusive hire 24 hours a day, Monday to Sunday however our Liquor License restricts the service of alcohol between 10am and Midnight.
