A photograph of a wedding ceremony taking place outdoors in front of a white chapel. The bride, wearing a white lace gown and a long veil, is kissing the groom on the cheek. The groom is wearing a dark blue tuxedo with a white pocket square and a dark bow tie. They are standing on a green lawn scattered with white rose petals. A line of guests, including women in colorful dresses and men in suits, is visible on both sides, some holding up phones to take pictures. The chapel in the background has large, multi-paned windows.

WELCOME TO THE CHAPEL AT SEASIDE

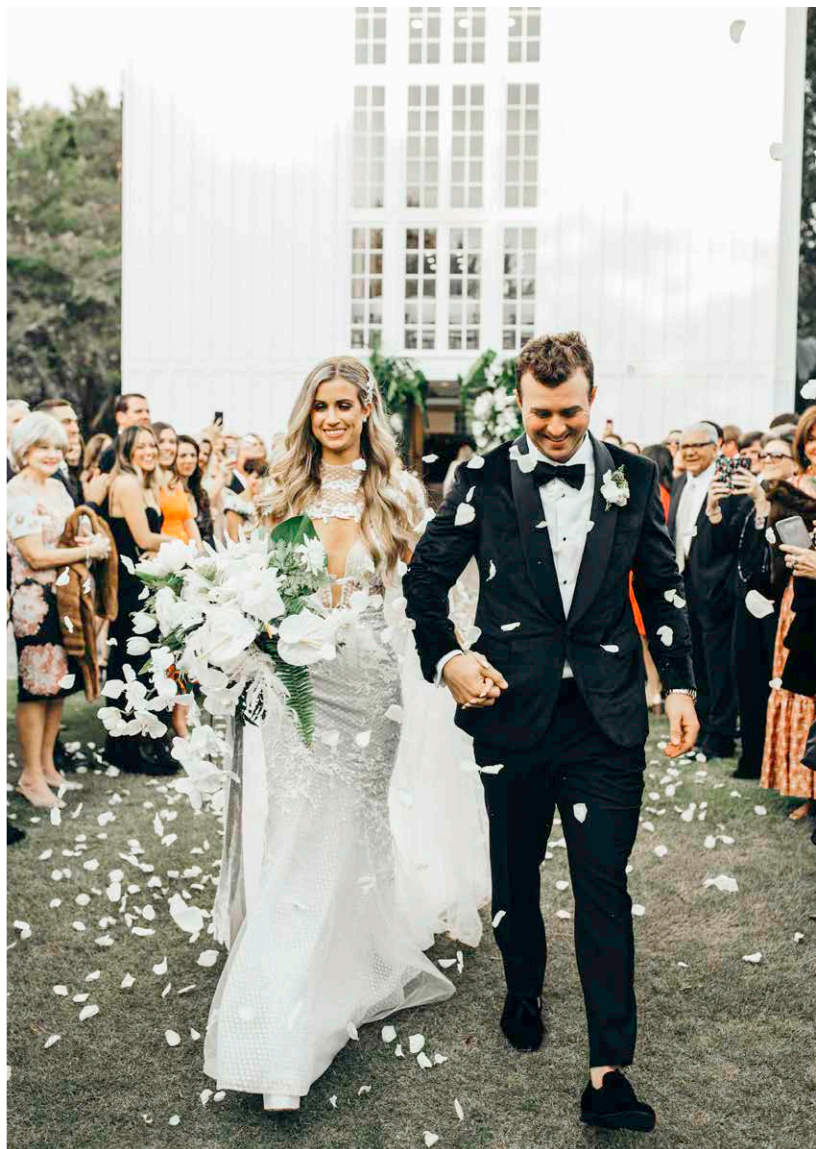

From its open and airy vaulted ceilings and bright natural light to its iconic bell tower, the charming yet simple architecture of The Chapel at Seaside has made it a picture-perfect backdrop for wedding vows and engagements since 2001. The surrounding beauty of the New Urbanism town of Seaside, Florida, and the sparkling Gulf of Mexico only steps away make The Chapel your ultimate beach destination wedding venue. Locals and visitors who grew up attending our interdenominational services or passing by on foot or by bicycle also enjoy the nostalgia and special sense of home that The Chapel lends to their “I dos.”

Our staff and the concierge at the Homeowner’s Collection in Seaside are excited to be part of your big day and to help ensure that every detail makes an indelible memory for you and your loved ones.

I grew up going to Seaside with my family since the late '80s, and we've been homeowners since the early '90s. I always dreamed of getting married in The Chapel and having a reception in the park. That dream truly became a reality! We chose The Chapel because we wanted to get married at the beach but in a chapel and not actually on the beach. The Chapel at Seaside is absolutely beautiful, charming, quaint, and sophisticated! Ruskin Park was the ideal setting for our reception; outdoors yet still intimate. Several of our guests commented they had never been to a chapel with such beautiful natural light nor a reception that felt like a picture in a magazine! Our wedding was the best day of our lives. It wouldn't have been as special or memorable if it hadn't been at the Chapel or Ruskin Park.
