AT GREENHILL WINERY & VINEYARDS

Barrel Room

The Barrel Room provides an ideal setting for a range of different events; it boasts beautiful solid wood walls, a cathedral ceiling, old farm-house style rod iron chandeliers, and natural wood beams. The perimeter of the space is graced with oak barrels housing our wines during their aging process. For your convenience, private restrooms are located inside the barrel room. The Barrel Room is ideal for large group tastings, corporate wine dinners, rehearsal dinners, and more!

Lounge

Located on the second floor of the Tasting Room, the Lounge is an open style space that feels cozy and intimate. It features exposed wood beams, warm fireplace, outside balcony, and windows that show off the breathtaking view of the Blue Ridge Mountains. For your convenience, restrooms are located on the same level. The Lounge is perfect for cocktail parties, socials and other intimate events.

Conference Room

Located on the second floor of the Tasting Room off the Lounge, the Conference Room is a private room perfect for business meetings and small get-togethers. This space provides a beautiful natural wood table that seats up to 12 people, a small balcony, and a TV perfect for presentations!

La Cave

Located downstairs from the Tasting Room, La Cave is a private wine cellar featuring stone-like walls and rod-iron gates. This cozy space is adorned with leather couches, big comfy chairs, tasting bar, and big barnwood doors leading into the cellar with a beautiful chandelier and wine lockers beyond the iron gates. There is also a private patio with two large tables and chairs.

Available rental for La Cave members only*

Club House

Circa 1762, the historic Club House provides a beautiful blend of old-world charm with all of today's modern amenities. The Club House features rooms with original heart pine floors, ten-foot ceilings, and original woodwork all ornately decorated with equestrian artwork and French country accents. The Club House offers three woodburning fireplaces on the main level as well as a beautiful stone terrace overlooking the pond and rolling hillside. The Club House is a great space for smaller, intimate gatherings.

The Greenhill Room creates the perfect private environment for small business meetings. It's furnished with a grand wooden table surrounded by 10 oversized chairs and features a hidden television equipped for presentations. The Greenhill Room also offers french doors leading to a small balcony with outdoor furniture.
