UPPER LOBBY

High above the hustle and bustle, you'll find our Upper Lobby perfectly situated on the fifth floor/balcony level of Reynolds Hall. This beautiful open space mirrors our Grand Lobby layout but provides more privacy, and of course, dramatic views of downtown Las Vegas. Stir things up with a cocktail reception outside on the balcony overlooking Symphony Park or enjoy the many comforts of the Upper Lobby lounge area. The Carillon Salon and West Lounge work perfectly for small gatherings or breakout rooms. We can set the Upper Lobby for a reception, theatre performance, seminar, conference presentation, wedding, art show or seated dinner.

GRAND LOBBY/UPPER LOBBY

The Smith Center presents the greatest performing arts from around the world, and we pride ourselves with hosting special events just as spectacular as our productions. The campus' stunning art deco architecture provides an elegant and sophisticated backdrop to transform any event into a true masterpiece—and even includes the option to ring the carillon bells and heighten a moment of celebration.

Take center stage in our magnificent Grand Lobby, a striking setting for a memorable event. Enjoy this open space for mingling, networking, cocktails or other socializing opportunities, before ascending to the Upper Lobby. This offers a tasteful and versatile space for dinners, presentations, meetings, dancing and more. Seize the chance to captivate your guests with these impressive venues.
