Privacy:

Hosting just one wedding per day gives you, your family and friends a time to relax and enjoy. You never have to worry about seeing another couple having photos or unwanted guests joining in.

Furnishings & Other Details:

Round Tables seating 8-12, some square tables, beautiful x back chairs, vintage church pews for your ceremony, patio heaters for those chilly nights, fire pit for gathering around and other touches and lighting throughout – Helping to make your planning seamless.

Dressing Suite – She Shed:

A Beautiful and charming space just for you – Arrive early, bring your mimosa's and your wedding party – Up to 4 hours for dressing and relaxing before and after your ceremony – When its time – we just open the French Doors, and you go on down the aisle.

Full Guidance and Day of Coordination:

Relax and Enjoy – Focus on Family and Friends – Leave the Details to us.

We have been hosting weddings at The Appel Inn since 1983 – Our experience allows you to relax and focus on each other and we focus on bringing your vision to life.

Full Year-Round Venue

Love the Barn Vision but not the Wet – Hot – Cold? The Appel Inn Gathering Space allows you to bring in your rustic vision while offering air- conditioning, heat and covered spaces should Mother-Nature decide to not cooperate – Including indoor bathrooms so your grandparents are not getting wet. As well as completely accessible for the comfort of all of your guests. New for 2021 is our Rustic Grooms Room in our restored 150 year old shed.

These are just a few of the details that sets us apart to be sure you have a magical celebration with family and friends.

Investment in a wedding at The Appel Inn.

As we host just one event per day the guest count does not really affect our time or space.

Whether hosting 40 or 140 we are offering you the same service. We do offer a variety options based on the day of the week and the time of the year to help with Budgeting. Please remember your food and beverage will be handled directly with the caterers and contracted directly with them. It is in addition to our venue fees.

Our timing begins at Ceremony time - We are ready earlier as we expect guests to begin arriving @ 30 minutes before.
