So glad you're here!

Painted Pony Vineyards and Estate is a place for modern romance. A hidden gem of true beauty. We know how to throw a relaxed, intimate gathering with style.

Nestled on a 64 acre working farm located in Southeastern North Carolina, our place is comprised of an outdoor chapel, two different reception locations, a moon deck, a cabin, bridal and groom suites, a pasture with two horses, two miniature horses, seven goats, and a donkey, fields and woods, and of course the vineyards.

Unlike many 'blank-canvas' venues, we strive to offer a series of uniquely curated settings, with exceptional attention to detail.

Our staff offers warm and genuine hospitality, making for a high-quality experience and a day that flows with ease. We treat your event like it was our own.

All beautiful on-site furniture (in and outdoor) is included, we also have a decor rental package for your convenience, and our year-round availability to help and advice.

We look forward to celebrating with you soon!

TESTIMONIALS

“I had my wedding at Painted Pony on October 19, 2019. Mrs. Cheryl, Mr. Lee, and Kaleh are all so so helpful through the entire planning process including set up the day of. They definitely take into account what you’re envisioning for your big day and will help make your dream come true! Absolutely gorgeous property and so many beautiful places to have pictures taken. I could not imagine having my wedding any where else. You’ll definitely regret not having your big day at Painted Pony Vineyards!!! Also, did I mention the animals?!”

“When my now husband and I booked Painted Pony Vineyards, Mrs. Cheryl and Mr. Lee had a vision for their beautiful property and to say that vision was brought to life would be an understatement. The chapel is breathtaking along with all the beautiful landscape and barn. Aside from the beauty of the venue they are the most helpful, easy going, accommodating and caring people to work with. I can reassure you that if you book here you will be the happiest bride.

VENUE RENTAL

Our goal at Painted Pony Vineyards is to provide the best possible experience for our couples. With that in mind, we guaranty one wedding per weekend so you have access to the estate the day before your wedding for your rehearsal, rehearsal dinner, extra prep time, etc., in addition to time allowed on your wedding day.

Your rental includes exclusive use of The Estate for your ceremony and reception. Our outdoor chapel is the perfect backdrop for your ceremony. The Chapel is surrounded by tall Carolina pines. It's 100-year-old stain glass windows were imported from an old church in Southern California. The custom wooden benches will comfortably seat 200 people.

We have two reception locations, The Barn and The Pavilion. Our packages allow you to choose the reception location that best serves your wedding day or have access to both locations. The Barn seats 150 people comfortably. The Barn features an indoor working fireplace, shabby chic restrooms, Butler's kitchen, and vintage furniture. It is temperature controlled for cold winter nights or warm summer evenings. The interior was carefully designed to allow for a variety of wedding styles, and requires minimal work and cost to look beautiful on your wedding day.

The Pavilion is an open air concept that will allow natural lighting to pour into your reception and give you a beautiful woodland backdrop. This space will accommodate 250 guest and still allow for a spacious dance area. The exposed beams, market lights and drapery will add an elegance to your event at no additional cost to you and will work with several wedding styles. This space also includes a small platform with a wooden herringbone pattern backdrop that will serve as a great space for head tables or even a live band.
