

THE SANCTUARY ON PENN

HONOR THE DAY, CELEBRATE THE NIGHT

THE POSSIBILITIES ARE ENDLESS

Our venue was born out of a wish to give the couple everything they desire. At The Sanctuary on Penn, we realize that your wedding is the most important day of your life. We've been in the wedding business for a long time, and it's far too often that we hear a venue or a church say "no" when the answer should be "YES!"

- OPEN YEAR ROUND
- UP TO 250 GUESTS
- INDOOR/OUTDOOR CEREMONY SITES

LOVE IS IN THE DETAILS

A PART OF HISTORY

Inside of a church built in 1876, a traditional and ornate exterior with an ancient Romanesque design on the inside, our space is truly unique.

ALL INCLUSIVE

Our venue was born out of a wish to give the couple everything they desire. We have everything you need for both your ceremony AND reception.

YOUR DAY

It's your day, not ours. It's your tastes, your wishes, your family, and your beliefs - there's no reason why you should have to compromise on anything.

"Our daughter's wedding at The Sanctuary was lovely. Not only is the venue fun and quirky, but Evan is wonderful to work with. They will let you dream as big as you like and they can provide vendors for everything you need, but then after you have dreamed to your heart's content they will help you get as much of your vision into your budget as you can. They are very professional but approachable as well. They were supportive throughout the planning process and always available to bounce off ideas and strategize ...and on the day of they provided a calm presence in a sea of nerves! I highly recommend their preferred emcee and DJ - Don. He does a great job of getting people on the dance floor. Finally, the food is wonderful. One couple had previously been to a wedding at the Sanctuary and was excited to come back and have more great food! Details that are unique to the sanctuary - It was so helpful to be able to have the whole venue for the day and then be able to come pick things up after the wedding rather than staying late to get everything put together that evening. And the treasure room is great! We found chair bands that went with our decor and made the look a little more fancy. I highly recommend the Sanctuary to anyone considering a wedding. Evan will help you enjoy the process from start to finish and you will not be disappointed!"

PRICING

ALL INCLUSIVE WEDDINGS

We have SO many things to choose from that our prices range widely. You can book a wedding with us for anywhere from $10,000 to $50,000 depending on what you want to spend and when you want to have your event.

What we find is that we tend to be able to provide a complete, all-inclusive wedding for about the amount that you would expect to pay for just a venue and catering. The average cost for a wedding at The Sanctuary of 100-250 people tends to be between $15,000 - $30,000...but again, that's just a ballpark figure. Your numbers will be determined by the choices that you make.

PAYMENT STRUCTURE

We also have a payment structure that is very different from most other venues. Instead of taking a large deposit and then having to pay another large sum when the wedding day arrives, we can split your costs into monthly payments with NO interest. We run payments from the time of booking (the first payment serves as your deposit) to 10 days prior to your wedding.

At the time you book with us, your numbers will be a very close estimate. When you eventually meet with our chef your numbers will become concrete and your monthly payments will simply adjust slightly up or down based on the choices you make at that time.

FINDING THE RIGHT CHOICE FOR YOU

We know that everyone has a budget. It's our goal not to make you spend more money than you have, but to get you the most value for whatever amount you have to spend. One of the best ways to maximize your savings is to be flexible with your wedding date. Saturdays are often chosen for a combination of atmosphere and convenience, but are not always a necessity.

FRIDAY WEDDINGS

Friday weddings tend to be a little bit more lively. They traditionally have later starts and you get a full weekend to recover & celebrate instead of just a Sunday. For those who want a real party, this is often a good choice.

SUNDAY WEDDINGS

Sundays tend to be more laid back and conversational. We find that smaller groups with very close friends or tightly knit families can often find what they're looking for in a Sunday wedding.

The first question is this: Do most of my guests live in Indiana? If the answer is no, having a large number of out of town guests can often become complicated with coordinating flights and work schedules and may steer you toward choosing a Saturday. If the answer is yes, you may find that a Friday or Sunday wedding can work out very well for you.

WINTER WEDDINGS

The idea of a perfect wedding day is often all-encompassing. You want EVERYTHING to be perfect. The decorations, the guests, the music, and the weather. But how much does the weather really matter when you're indoors?

We have seen some beautiful wintertime themes in weddings at The Sanctuary, and the atmosphere can be quite magical. We understand the idea of wanting a nice day outside, but is it really that important? Think about it for a day or two, and you'll know the answer for yourself.

LAST MINUTE WEDDINGS

The common thinking is that weddings are tremendously complicated to plan, organize, and execute. While this may be true, professionals who make a living organizing and putting on weddings (like us) can do it seamlessly and efficiently with very, very little time.

Both by accident (military deployment) and on purpose, ("we feel like getting married in 3 months") we have planned many last minute weddings - one in as few as 8 days. By our standards, they were just as wonderful and elaborate as all of the rest of our events.

If you meet these criteria, we highly recommend exploring this option for major, major savings:

- Flexible on your wedding date
- Not prone to panic
- Do not need to stretch monthly payments over a long period of time

HOW IT WORKS 1 of 2

YOUR FIRST VISIT

You'll take a tour of the building and we'll tell you all about it. If you like what you see, we'll have a seat and start to listen. We'll want to know about who you are, where you come from, and what you're hoping for.

YOUR DREAM SHEET

A list of everything you could possibly think of, big or small. From the DJ and photographer all the way down to the programs for the ceremony or snacks for the guys in the morning, we cover everything but the dress. If your dreams match your budget - great! If not, don't worry - we'll still help you to make it work. We'll email you an excel spreadsheet version of The Dream Sheet to play with at home. There, you can tinker until everything works for you!

YOUR SECOND MEETING

Our goal is to inform and advise you as much as you like from our experience and our creativity, and then listen closely as you make the final decisions. When you finish building your dream package, we'll meet up again to answer any questions you may have and get your date officially reserved!

OUR GOAL

We will guide you through the process of creating your perfect day with as much or as little effort as you want to put in. We understand that each couple wants to take care of some things and not others, and we want to keep your experience pleasant and stress-free from start to finish.

"My husband and I got married here this summer, and we absolutely LOVED it. Evan was so helpful and made the day literally stress-free for us. He met with us multiple times before; just to make sure the day would be perfect and it really was. I would 100% recommend this place to everyone. The building itself had so much character that we did not need to worry about decorations (which was huge for me as I am a terrible decorator). I also loved that they flipped the room from the ceremony so quickly and we did not need to change locations. They also give you 24-hour access to the building so we were able to get ready, have the ceremony and the reception in the same place. They made the whole day a breeze, which made the day completely stress-free for us and so much fun!"
