LOVE NOTES

Recent Reviews from Local Couples

My fiancé and I are recently engaged and started the wedding planning process early. We had looked at three other venues before visiting Cuvier Club. The team was extremely helpful and knowledgeable. They also made sure we felt comfortable with our planning and offered options that were feasible for us. With the many different options they offer, the one thing we loved was the All-Inclusive option which alleviates a lot of stress from our plates. We look forward to our 15-month engagement and the staff are readily available to address all my eager questions! Highly recommend!

We had our wedding at Cuvier Club in November 2022. For a beach wedding in La Jolla the cost was incredibly reasonable and it was beautiful! The team was great to work with and very professional. When planning a wedding things can change from one day to the next. They were very flexible with changing our menu, guest count, updating rental items, and honoring promises for discounted items. For our second walk through, the team was available to answer any questions. On the day of, our Banquet Captain did a fantastic job making sure appetizers and dinner were served on time. The entire team is there to help create the best experience and bring your vision to life. I would 100% have my wedding at the Cuvier Club again!

Alessandra

We had our wedding at Cuvier Club and it couldn't have gone any smoother! We originally chose the venue for the location in La Jolla, the ability to comfortably hold at least 125 guests, and their outdoor and indoor spaces. The garden outside is absolutely beautiful and was perfect for our outdoor cocktail hour. Meanwhile, the indoor hall area was clean, spacious, and the perfect area to accommodate all our festivities, eating, and dancing. Their all-inclusive packages made planning the wedding and hiring vendors so easy, especially since we were out-of-state during much of that time. Our coordinator was an absolute pleasure to work with! The team orchestrated the day perfectly and we couldn't have done it without them! HIGHLY RECOMMEND!!
