

Wedding Information

Capture the romance of a lake-side wedding ceremony*

The breathtaking views and photo opportunities at the magnificent, beautifully landscaped mansion are sure to create cherished memories. Your guests and family will also enjoy the convenience of having the ceremony and reception at the same site.

The Montague Inn Bed & Breakfast is a most charming site for your upcoming event. With its romantic 1929 old-world charm and vintage ambience, you will feel you have stepped back in time. This stately 16-bedroom mansion offers a cozy, warm and intimate feeling most modern day venues cannot replicate. Featuring a sprawling, well-manicured landscape, carefully curated gardens, natural wildlife plus this lake front property is nestled on peaceful Linton Lake. The many exquisite architectural nooks and crannies found within the mansion, makes it impossible to keep the secret to ourselves that the Montague Inn is simply a photographer's (and time traveler's) dream.

Showers, parties, weddings, life celebrations and more can be accommodated year-round. Guest lists of 30-400 people in attendance are never a problem, we are always a worry-free experience for every client. Our staff is known for its professionalism, hospitality, flexibility in helping bring your even vision to life and keeping your special day completely stress free while you create special memories with those you love most dear. Added convenience can be found with our venues overnight lodging for you, your immediate family members, bridal party members and those out-of-town guests. Time and again we hear how perfect it is to be on site of the venue prior to, during and after a large celebration, reducing the need for wedding or event day transportation.

1581 South Washington Ave. Saginaw, MI 48601

We invite you to schedule an appointment today with our event planner to see how the richness, beauty and historic treasures of the Montague are a perfect fit for you and your cherished celebration.
