ABOUT THE MACKENZIE ART GALLERY

The MacKenzie Art Gallery is Saskatchewan's original public art gallery: an immersive centre for engaging people through transformative experiences of the world through art, with an ongoing focus on Indigenous culture and diversity. The MacKenzie is located in Regina's Wascana Park, Canada's largest urban park and home to the Provincial Capital Commission. It is located within Treaty Four territory, the traditional territory of the Cree, Saulteaux, Lakota, Dakota, and Nakota people, and the homeland of the Métis Nation. The permanent collection, which includes the University of Regina's extensive collection as well as the Kampelmacher Collection of Indigenous Art, contains over 5,000 works of art spanning 5,000 years of art history.

5,000 WORKS SPANNING 5,000 YEARS — YOU MIGHT NEED TO LOOK AGAIN.
