Recent Reviews from Local Couples

This venue is the perfect compromise to get a stunning mountain location without the hassle of dragging all your guests to the actual mountains (and altitude). Obviously the grounds and facilities speak for themselves, but the staff at The Pines are unbeatable! The day-of staff was incredibly kind and energetic! They really have the planning process honed in and have an answer for everything. They also have an incredible list of preferred vendors and we had great experiences with everyone we used. This venue strikes a unique balance of offering so many things you may need or want, without forcing you into an all-or-nothing package. Just look at the ceremony sites and you'll be sold – sooo beautiful!!

Where do we begin? HIGHLY RECOMMEND getting married at The Pines. The ceremony and reception sites are BEAUTIFUL. The ceremony site allows for the feel of getting married in the mountains with the accessibility to Denver, cell service, ubers, etc. that you cannot always get in remote mountain destinations. The reception sites are spacious, clean and accommodating. The staff went above and beyond when it came to set-up and service. I still have family commenting that there was staff taking care of them from cocktail hour to the end of the reception every time they turned around. The tasting and planning process is very thorough and organized with The Pines. The food was FRESH and delicious— The Pines food was the best wedding food I have ever had (many guests have told me this as well). I cannot say enough positive things about The Pines team. They orchestrated every minute of the day perfectly. This venue knows what they are doing when it comes to weddings. I, as well as my friends and family, felt so taken care of throughout the entire process.

My husband and I got married at The Pines two weeks ago and we couldn't have imagined a more perfect night! The team went above and beyond with hosting our wedding. They answered a million questions we had for months (and years) leading up to the event, helped us out so much the day of (including making a last minute boutonniere and recommending a switch to our shuttle plans!), and our planning meetings were also a great experience. One staff member even came up to my husband and complimented us on our first dance. They were so nice! The venue itself is beautiful, close to Denver, so accessible for our out of town guests, and the food was amazing. I could go on and on. Would highly recommend!
