FOUR FINE OLD FORESTER BOURBONS •	35

SINGLE BARREL

Every fingerprint is unique. The same is true for every barrel of bourbon. Old Forester Single Barrel has bottles from one individual barrel, so there is no other bourbon exactly like it.

1870 ORIGINAL BATCH

In 1870 George Garvin Brown created Old Forester on Louisville's famous Whiskey Row. In honor of that milestone year, we have crafted a tribute bourbon echoing Brown's original batching process. Back then, he batched barrels from three distilleries to create a unique flavor profile.

1897 BOTTLED IN BOND

Bottled in Bond is crafted to honor a watershed moment in bourbon history - the U.S. Bottled-in-Bond Act of 1897. This expression follows the Bottled in Bond standards that whisky must be aged in a federally bonded warehouse for at least four years, the product of one distillation season, one distiller and from one distillery and bottled at 100 Proof.

1920 PROHIBITION STYLE

The Volstead Act of 1920 initiated Prohibition, granting six distillers in Kentucky to continue to bottle bourbon for medicinal purposes. Old Forester continued production as medicinal whiskey. It's the only bourbon continuously sold by the same company that has been available for sale before, during and after Prohibition.
