Memorial Services And Funerals

*For everything there is a reason,
A time for everything under the sun;
A time to be born, and a time to die;
A time to plant, and a time to harvest;
A time to break down, and a time to rejoice;
And a time also to remember. . .*

(from Ecclesiastes 3)

A word to the bereaved. . .

In your days of personal loss and sadness, the Miami Lakes Congregational Church is here to serve you and support you in your desire to honor your cherished loved one.

There is no one right or wrong way to do this, as our grief and our remembering are always personal. Please know that however you choose to honor and celebrate the life of your beloved family member or friend, you are never alone. As the Apostle Paul reminds us in Romans 8,

There is nothing in all creation that can ever separate us from the love of God which is ours through Christ Jesus, our Lord.

Please know as well that, in our coming and our going, both our life and our death are sacred (the life that God gives us, and the death that one day comes our way); and that in all things they belong to God.

God is our shelter and strength, always ready to help in time of trouble. So we will not be afraid, even if the earth is shaken and the mountains fall into the ocean depths.

(from Psalm 46)

May the words of the psalmist be a source of comfort and reassurance.

*The Lord is my shepherd, I shall not want;
he makes me lie down in green pastures.
He leads me beside still waters.
He restores my soul.
He leads me in the paths of righteousness
for his name's sake.*

*Even though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death,
I fear no evil; for you are with me.
Your rod and your staff, they comfort me.*

*You prepare a table before me in the presence of my enemies.
You anoint my head with oil; Your cup overflows.
Surely goodness and mercy shall follow
me all the days of my life;
And I shall dwell in the house of the Lord forever.*
