About Us

Discover a space where tradition meets love, and history blends with joyful celebration. For 150 years, Oak Lawn United Methodist Church has been a welcoming place for couples and families, honoring the beauty of love in all its forms. Let us be part of your story as we continue to celebrate the love that binds our community together.

We are in the heart of the Oak Lawn neighborhood, across the street from the Warwick Melrose Hotel, a popular wedding reception venue. We have ample parking in our parking lot and overflow parking garage underneath the Windsor apartments.

Getting to know you

Meet with a pastor today to talk about your wedding plans, ceremony and how we can help. We get to know you to make sure your wedding is special!

All are welcome!

Everyone is a beloved child of God and welcome in our church. We can't wait to plan and share your special day with you!

Our Venue

BUILT 1913
RESTORED 2020

All are welcome here, and that extends to our wedding and events!

While you don't have to be a member of Oak Lawn United Methodist Church to have your wedding here, we would love for you to connect with our vibrant congregation! You are welcome to visit any Sunday!

Our Pastors and team are ready to help you with all your wedding plan details. We offer three packages for very small, medium or large weddings. Our sanctuary holds up to 400 attendees and we welcome people of all faiths and walks of life. Visitors are impressed with our magnificent pipe organ and exquisite stained-glass windows.

We are a historical church, but we are not old-fashioned. We live by our stance of unconditional love and welcome for all.
