

Big Impact:

It's not just a party. Your event showcases who you are.

By hiring an event planner, you free yourself to focus on your guests. While professionals take care of all the details that go into managing and creating the look of your event, you get to be the fantastic host, socializing and networking and having fun with your important guests.

Small Footprint:

In today's world, sustainability is more than a buzzword, it's a core value. Unfortunately, most big events leave behind a lot of waste. Traditional event planning produces a "garbage party" – a big spectacle requiring big trash bins.

We started reFresh Events to help clients plan great events that aren't marred by eco-carelessness. We think differently about event planning, making choices that reduce waste, energy, and costs. We create events that help our clients look good and save money, while helping the environment, too.

Who we are:

reFresh Events can completely plan, stage, and manage your event. We specialize in custom decor and lighting. Corinne Dahlo and Andy Boniface together have over 30 years' experience with everything from weddings to charity fundraising events to multi-day public events.

Corinne Dahlo, BFA. – Event & Wedding Designer

Corinne's years of experience in theatre production and visual arts shines through in the décor and visuals she creates for events. Corinne has proven herself as a resourceful and creative event designer. She specializes in working with clients to amplify their style, source effective materials, and implement décor at the venue – within budget.

Andy Boniface – Event Logistics & Corporate Branding

Andy believes that events are a cornerstone of branding and media exposure. As the former Events & Media Relations Manager for Mt Seymour Resorts, he put together a program of multi-day ski and snowboard events that put this family-run mountain resort in the national and international spotlight. Andy ensures that your event goals are identified, understood and achieved.
